

IFG Ingolstadt

“Grüß Gott” and welcome to the centre for the promotion of economic development in Ingolstadt

For more than 40 years, IFG Ingolstadt, the organisation for the promotion of economic development of the City of Ingolstadt, has been the competent partner to the regional economy. Our objective is to preserve as well as to further expand the location qualities and attractiveness of Ingolstadt in addition to promoting a climate which is conducive to economic activity. The centre for the promotion of economic development looks after the interests of the economy in Ingolstadt, is your competent contact for all economy-relevant questions, is in charge of local companies from all industries, supports companies to set up business, provides industrial premises and actively undertakes location marketing. Our free-of-charge service is aimed at local companies as well as companies that are interested in setting up business here.

Our service for you:

- Information about Ingolstadt as a business location
- Contact for the local companies from all industries
- Advice on setting up, extending or relocating your company
- Initial advice for new businesses, information via information centres
- Immediately available industrial premises with excellent transport links
- Cargo Centre (Güterverkehrszentrum – GVZ) with offices, halls and a container terminal
- Industrial premises at the Automotive Development Centre/Simultaneous Engineering Park for suppliers (SE-Park)
- Networking with the New Business Centre, universities, corporate networks, chambers, associations, public authorities and any other business-relevant institutions
